What I Do

I teach advanced art lessons to students ages nine to sixteen. The basis of my service is unique, one-on-one instruction, however there are exceptions for siblings and friends.

I also offer college prep and carreer advice for older students.

Where I Teach

Home Studio

I have a home studio available where my students have access to a variety of supplies and tools.

Client's Home

For additional pay, I will drive directly to the client's home with supplies.

Online

Discounted online lessons are available for long-distance clients. In-person clients may switch to online anytime that is necessary.

Pricing

$20	$25	$45*
Online lessons	Studio Lessons	Home Lessons
Art supplies not provided, must have smart phone or laptop available.	Full access to all supplies and books I own with deposit. Limited to two students; must use same transportation.	Access to requested supplies with deposit. *Price may be more or less depending on transportation costs

Supply Deposit

Students with an optional supply deposit gain access to my library as well as my materials with a minumum $20 deposit. Supply costs average $0.50-$3 per lesson.

How it works: I calculate the cost of my supplies per-use, and automatically deduct this amount from the deposit each lesson. I will return the remaining amount to the client or ask for another deposit based on how much money was used. If a book is lost, it will be replaced using the deposit.

I do not profit from supply fees. They are solely for the convenience of the client and education of the student.

Art Studio Information

Availability:

As of the time of updating this information packet (September 2026), I am in the process of moving to a new home in Savannah, GA! My new home studio is still in progress and therefore my exact availability is unknown. My goal is to begin studio lessons by mid to end October 2026.

Roommate Disclaimer:

My studio is located in my home and I live with three roommates: my boyfriend of two years, our friend since high school, and my best friend since middle school.

Your comfort is my priority! There is a space in my studio for parents to do work during the lesson if desired.

Home Visit Information

Price & Availability:

Price is calculated by the time it takes me to drive to your home and the cost of gas to travel there. Home visits are only available on Sundays and are limited to a thirty-minute travel time.

Supplies and Workspace:

Home visits usually work best with a kitchen table or island. I have a protective cloth available. I bring mess-free supplies based on the lesson plan for the day or at the client's request.
